

Listed Author Order:

DanileTatum, Beverly

A Conversation with Beverly Daniel Tatum

School Improvement Network 2005

Dr. Tatum is the recipient of numerous honorary degrees, including Bates College, Bowdin College, Washington and Lee University, Mount Holyoke College, Westfield State College, Bridgewater State College, Salem State University, and Wheelock College. In 2005 she was awarded the prestigious Brock International Prize in Education for the innovative leadership she has provided in the field of education.

Downey, Carolyn; Steffy, Betty; English, Fenwick;

Three Minute Walk-Through

Corwin Press 2006

This comprehensive video shows teachers in their own classrooms, the principal-teacher conversations that follow, administrator reflection practices, and additional interviews with the contributing authors of the book. A companion DVD with navigational menus and bullets for easy stop-and-search control of the video content. A companion CD-ROM containing all the overheads. - A step-by-step facilitator's guide that connects the core content of the book to the video, DVD and CD-ROM. Included in the guide are video, DVD, and CD-ROM segment prompts, workshop outlines, extended workshop activities, discussion questions, and major points of emphasis.

NCREL

Beyond Testing: Assessment for Teaching and Learning

NCREL View Points 2002

The CDs provide the voices, or viewpoints, of a highly respected group of education professionals who are well versed in the issues of testing and assessment.

The booklet complements the interviews with research about the increasing importance of testing and assessment in school improvement.

Stiggins, Rick

New Mission, New Beliefs

Assessment Training Institute 2004

The presentation Rick Stiggins makes in the DVD comes mostly from a keynote address given at a conference earlier in 2004. It also contains other studio footage of Rick further explaining some of the ideas introduced in the main presentation.